WATERBURY-STOWE, VERMONT, THURSDAY

Firemen's Annual Fair To Be Held November 24 And 25

The Waterbury Fire Department will hold its Annual Fair at the Fire Station, November 24th and 25th. Two nights of fun and frolic. This yearly event conducted by the local firemen provides funds for the "benefit fund" of the local Department and helps defray miscellaneous expenses.

The usual games of skill and the opportunity of winning a Thanksgiving turkey will provide entertainment for old and young. Between twenty and thirty turkeys will be given away as well as chickens and ducks. The Fair will be conducted in a clean and wholesome manner and the attractions offered will appeal to children as well as grown-ups.

The local firemen make no boast of being a charitable organization, nevertheless a spirit of charity exists among the members and money from the "benefit fund" has on many occasions given "the financial lift" in cases of sickness, surgical operations and other needs. Part of the money realized this year will be used for Christmas welfare work. There is expense entailed in repairing the toys for unfortunate children at Christmas time: glue, paint and other materials have to be purchased for this work.

Members of the Waterbury Fire Department invite you to make them a visit at the local fire station on November 24th and 25th and spend an enjoyable evening.
